

IMDB

1.Introduction

online movie database, IMDB, is an online database of information about movies, TV shows, home videos, video games, and online content - including actors, production crew, personal resumes, plot summaries, ratings and fan as well as critical reviews. The film database's website was originally a fan-run website

2.Description

That project is online database for all movies ,series ,actors ,directors and authors.

That there are two types of people that can login into website

2.1 Users

That can create new account and then login ,after login can edit profile and view movies and movie cast and can add it to favorites

2.2 Admin

Create , read update , delete movies profile and movies cast profiles

2.3 Author

Search for movies ,actors ,directors by name and open their profiles and can add them to latest work

3.environment

Using database and asp.net